

To whom it may concern:

I am writing to express my concern about the attempts by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. I am opposed to the CBA proposal to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana Consumers. The telephone privacy law in Indiana is beneficial to the quality of life we enjoy as Indiana residents. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Matt Broadwell